

Kerry Dienelt (NT)

Player number # 156

197 games for Australia

Kerry Dienelt made her debut for Australia in 1985 at the South Pacific Classic. She played in three World Championships in 1990, 1994 and 1998 and was captain of the 2000 Olympic bronze medal team at the Sydney Olympic Games. Kerry represented Australia on 197 occasions.

Kerry won bronze medals at Softball's first two Olympic appearances, hitting .364 at the 1996 Games in Atlanta. Kerry played at three ISF Women's World Championships, highlighted by a silver medal at the 1998 event, where she hit .385 for Australia.

She played in numerous other international softball events up until her retirement following the Sydney Olympic Games.

AWARDS

1985	Most Valuable Player, Open Women's National Championship
1987	Most Valuable Player, Open Women's National Championship
2004	Softball Australia Hall of Fame
2005	International Softball Federation Hall of Fame

TOURNAMENTS

1986	Pan Pacific, Vancouver, Canada
1989	Italy Series
1990	New Zealand Series
1990	VII Women's Softball World Championship, Normal, USA
1994	South Pacific Classic, Sydney
1994	Port Perry Tournament, USA
1994	VIII Women's Softball World Championship, St John's Canada
1995	Los Angeles, USA
1995	Fresno Tournament
1995	Superball, USA
1995	USA Series
1996	Chinese Taipei Series
1996	Four Nations Tournament
1996	Asian Tour

2004 Softball Australia Hall of Fame Inductee

1996	Los Angeles Tour, USA
1996	Atlanta Olympic Games
1997	Qantas Challenge
1997	Superball, USA
1998	South Pacific Classic
1998	Japan v Australia Test Series
1998	Canada Cup
1998	IX Women's Softball World Championship, Fujinomiya, Japan
1999	Qantas Challenge
1999	DeBilt Series, Netherlands
1999	US Olympic Cup
1999	Trans-Tasman Challenge
2000	Millennium Cup
2000	Brisbane International Challenge
2000	Sydney International Challenge
2000	Tri-Nations Challenge
2000	Canada Cup
2000	Sydney Olympic Games